| Effectiveness (what's changed) | DV units in place Staff trained. Strong relationships with NGOs and agencies | 5 |
| Sustainability (is more needed) | Solid foundations in place High levels of country support Refresher and wider training needed DV unit staff changes create risk | 4 |
| Efficiency (Value for money) | Delivered as planned and within budgets Mentor model is effective and efficient NZ Police contribution to ODA recognised | 5 |
| Monitoring (ongoing analysis) | New process for Police Not effectively in place till 2010 | 3 |
| Impact (Overall assessment of change) | Not assessed at this stage Too early to determine impact | n/a |

Main Review Recommendations

- Further PPDVP activities required – for 5 years
- Goals focussed on policing
 - NZAid, Ausaid and others focus on NGOs
- Assess and decide on wider scope (SGBV)
- Two levels
 - Participating
 - Other PICP members
- Stay closely aligned with NZPol ISG and AFP
PPDP
- TAF and Small Grants Funds maintained

Potential Activities

- Continue to maintain, strengthen and broaden in five countries
- Support to all Pacific Police services
- Recognising and using skilled staffed
 - Share data, examples – web site in place
 - Potential for Micronesian / Guam initiative – example
- Extended Exchange Programme and Study Tours

Next steps process

- PICP endorsement for action August 2011
- Country needs defined early 2012
 - Revised approach in delivery?
- Regional overlay developed
- PPDVP II design 2nd qtr 2012
- Negotiations with NZAid, NZ Police and PICP
- Identify and train NZ Police staff
- PPDVP II commences in July 2012

PICP Main Recommendations

1. Interim processes, evaluation & next steps process
2. Country and Regional needs analysis, S&GBV survey
3. Reaffirm S&GBV as a priority for PICP
4. Invite NZ Aid Programme, NZ Police and PICP Secretariat to work together to develop and deliver next stages
